

IMPORTANT NOTIFICATION.
PLEASE DISTRIBUTE.

Dear KLX Inc. Supplier:

You may have received our recent communication regarding the early 2016 establishment of KLX Aerospace Solutions International GmbH, a Swiss-based subsidiary of KLX Inc. This is to notify you that due to regulatory changes, creation of this entity is no longer required, and has been suspended indefinitely. There will be no new entity created.

The previous letter announcing KLX International is null and void. Specifically, the purchasing entity of KLX Aerospace Solutions, Inc. as well as our cage codes will remain as is, with no changes. Therefore, NO changes will be required for your company.

Please assist us in communicating this message to those within your organization who should be made aware. Do not hesitate to reach out to me or to your KLX Representative with any questions in the interim. We apologize for any confusion. As always, all current news can be found on our website at klxaerospace.com.

Sincerely,
